Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

Coastal Yooroorroom is a representation of the native shrubs that link saltwater to land. It tributes the intersection of these diverse terrains and their overlapping beauty. Coastal Yooroorroom encourages consideration of the impact we have on our surroundings and highlights the importance of treading lightly and caring for the land, for our actions are etched in Country and will be for years to come beautiful blooms, the sea garden is a place where time stands still and the calm water washes away weary thoughts for those who journey through.
