Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

Garraroon captures dusk – the fading of daylight as miraculously vibrant colours consume the skyscape. Regardless of specific Country - whether it be coastal, inland or by freshwater, beautiful sunsets are heavily chased. As we await nightfall, this magical moment effortlessly encourages presence in the here and now.
