Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

Ngumul is a depiction of the clouds above and their ever-changing nature. Similarly to life's opportunities and obstacles, the wind represents what may be considered a guiding flow or disruptive gust. Just as it can instantly shift the clouds, the wind can metaphorically lead one towards a particular direction, another, or at times, completely off-course. Ngumul embraces this uncertainty and highlights importance of appreciating and seizing the present moment.
