Kamilya Lowana White is a proud Aboriginal artist, born, raised and creating artworks in Naarm (Melbourne) on Wurundjeri Country. Ever since she was a child, she has been passionate about art, and enjoys creating with and exploring a range of techniques and mediums. Stemming from her Kija Bardi heritage on her father's side, Kamilya is particularly interested in creating contemporary Aboriginal paintings, inspired by the land, storytelling and relationships with others, all depicted with a modern twist. Kamilya finds this specific art style therapeutic and uses it to express and ground herself, while deepening her connection with culture.

The scrublands depicted in Yurruru tribute the power of Earth – the provider of life through its rich nutrients. Green and plentiful, Australian scrublands prove versatile and ever adapting to their surrounding, often harsh, environment and climate. Such areas may hold cultural significance too, through being a source of bush tucker and medicine that has been used for many thousands of years.
